1 Corinthians 12: 12 -14

Rev. Cedell Raggs is the oldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Raggs, Sr. He was educated in the Leland Public School System where he earned the reputation of being a superb athlete and an excellent student academically.

Raised in the A.M.E. Church where his grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Lockett, was a devoted member, he accepted his call to preach and until this year has labored in the vineyard for the Lord in this Zion.

Rev. Raggs has served the Eighth Episcopal District at charges both small and large in Mississippi and Louisiana. Wherever he served, he did so with integrity and commitment. Considered one of the outstanding preachers in the AME Church, Rev. Raggs is known throughout the connectional A.M.E. Church.

He is a husband, father, brother and considered a friend to many. He served Greater Turner Chapel AME Church from December 1996 until December 2002. Under his leadership new padded chairs were purchased for the choir and additional renovation
